CHURCH PENSION GROUP ANNOUNCES
THE REV. CANON ANNE MALLONEE TO RETIRE

NEW YORK, NY—April 1, 2022—The Church Pension Group (CPG), a financial services organization that serves The Episcopal Church, announced today that the Rev. Canon Anne Mallonee, Executive Vice President and Chief Ecclesiastical Officer, will retire effective April 1, 2022, after eight years of faithful service.

“Anne has been an invaluable member of our executive leadership team and will be truly missed,” said Mary Kate Wold, CEO and President of CPG. “Her outreach to and presence around the Church have been instrumental in strengthening relationships and identifying new needs.”

The Rev. Clayton Crawley, CPG’s Executive Vice President and Chief Church Relations Officer, added, “Anne has brought the voice of the Church to all of our decision making and has served as a wonderful ambassador for the organization. She will be deeply missed, and we wish her the very best in her retirement.”

Canon Mallonee said, “The opportunity to serve with CPG has been an honor. I retire having been blessed by relationships both within CPG and the Church.”

Prior to CPG, Canon Mallonee was vicar of Trinity Church Wall Street. She has spent 35 years in ministry at the diocesan level and in campus, parish, and cathedral settings. She holds a BA from the University of Kansas and an MDiv from Berkeley Divinity School at Yale University.
